Noor Hidayah Binti Musa was appointed as Partner in 2024 at Abdul Rahman & Partners, following her impactful tenure as Head of the Melaka Branch. With a strong focus on efficiency and performance, she has been instrumental in managing legal matters and optimising operations to drive the firm's success. She currently oversees the Firm's Litigation Department across Melaka, Batu Pahat and Johor Bahru.

Called to the Malaysian Bar in October 2013, she completed her pupillage at Messrs Faisal Azian & Co. and joined the firm in 2015. With extensive experience in litigation, she specialises in Debt Recovery and Banking Litigation, including civil, foreclosure, execution, bankruptcy, and winding-up proceedings.

Her experience includes :

- Debt Recovery & Banking Litigation
 - Acted and advised various financial institutions in Malaysia, including banks and non-bank entities in recovering debts under diverse financing structures such as hire purchase, property financing, personal loans and corporate lending.
 - Lead counsel in multiple foreclosure proceedings involving multi-million ringgit disputes against property developers and individual borrowers.
- Corporate & Commercial Litigation
 - Lead counsel for a well-known Malaysian hospital in disputes concerning outstanding hospital claims and patient billing issues.
 - Represented a prominent Malaysian political figure in a high-profile dispute over compensation for land acquisition against the Government of Malaysia.
- Government & Institutional Representation
 - Successfully acted on behalf of various government agencies in debt recovery assignments involving statutory and contractual obligations.
 - Advised and assisted government-linked corporations (GLCs) and statutory bodies on legal compliance and recovery strategies for outstanding dues.

With a keen eye for detail and a results-driven mindset, Noor Hidayah brings a pragmatic yet strategic approach to legal disputes. She is dedicated to ensuring that her clients' rights are upheld while minimizing legal risks and maximizing recovery outcomes.

Her ability to navigate complex legal landscapes, coupled with a strong track record of success, solidifies her reputation as a formidable advocate in the field of debt recovery, banking litigation, and commercial disputes.
